Delaware Historians Honor Fighting Man
1776 Veteran

A new white marker stands this Memorial Day over the grave of one of Central Ohio's "oldest" fighting men.

Delaware County historians, in a special ceremony last week, placed the official U.S. government marker at the grave of George Case, immigrant to Ohio, who fought with Connecticut troops in the Revolutionary War.

He came of a fighting family. George was one of seven brothers who went to war during the Revolutionary War with their father, Capt. John Case of Simsbury, Conn.

George bought his large family to Ohio in 1806 to settle on the 150 acres in the Olentangy valley which he bought from the government [grantor on deed is James Kilbourne] at $2 an acre. A brother, Seth Case, settled on an adjoining farm.

Later three of George's sons went off to fight the War of 1812 and one was killed in action.

George and his wife, the former Electa Moore, were buried in a family plot on the Case farm—a small enclosure with four evergreens at the corners and a sandstone marker at the graves.

The sandstone had long since disintegrated when a group of Delaware Countains including Thomas Graham of Delaware High School, past president of the Delaware County Historical Society, rediscovered the George Case grave.

They wrote to the federal government for an official soldier's marker. The white marble slab was mounted last Saturday, inscribed in memory of George Case, Pvt, Conn. Trooops, Born March 4, 1759, Died Feb. 19, 1834.

Note: George Case was 74 years, 11 months and 16 days old when he passed away.

Persistence of Descendents Bears Fruit
Revolutionary Marker Put On Grave of Powell Pioneer

By Virginia Cruikshank

On a wooded knoll overlooking the Olentangy River valley east of Powell, a small marble monument was put in place Saturday, marking the last resting place of a Revolutionary War soldier and pioneer settler of Delaware County.

A small group gathered at the spot Sunday afternoon to pay belated homage to George Case private in the Connecticut troops of the Revolution and settler in this county in 1806.

It marked the fulfillment of a 20-year dream of a Radnor women who carried on the project started in 1932 by a descendant of Case.

The late Miss. Luella Case of Worthington started 25 years ago to compose a genealogy of her family. One of her goals was to find and mark the grave of George Case, forfather of many persons now living in Delaware and Franklin counties.

In 1937, Miss. Case pointed out the burial plot of Case and his wife Mrs. George Pugh (Ruby Case), Radnor. The graves were at the top of Powell Rd. hill (State Route 750), about 500 feet west of the bridge over the Olentangy. It was on the original Case homestead, purchased by him in 1806 from the government, [grantor on deed is James Kilbourne] 150 acres at $2 per acre. The graves were marker by four pine trees, one at each corner.

Mrs. Pugh enlisted the aid of the Delaware County Historical Society and the Raymond B. Austin post of the American Legion. The War Department provided an engraved marker which is done for all Revolutionary War soldiers, upon proper application.

A slight delay developed when the sponsoring agencies were unable to find the four pine trees. The Case homestead is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fenstermaker, who gave permission for a grave marker to be put in place.

Died Soon After

Miss. Luella Case died in 1937 soon after showing Mrs. Pugh the burial location of the Revolutionary War soldier.

"I believe the site we selected for the marker does not miss the grave of George Case more than a few feet," said Mrs. Pugh, "but we could not find the landmark pointed out 20 years ago."

The monument was set by Myron Raush of the Fuller Monument Works, Delaware.

George Case was born the son of Capt. John Case who, with seven of his sons, served in the war. The Captain died during the war and one of his sons was killed in the fighting.

George had three sons serving in the War of 1812, one of whom was killed. One of George's brothers, Seth Case, bought land on an adjoining farm.

George's children were: (1) George (2) Nathan (3) Electe (4) Henry (5) Naomi (6) Charlotte (7) Lucinda (8) Titus. Nathan was in the War of 1812. Henry was in the War of 1812. Electe married Nathan Carpenter, son of Capt. Nathan Carpenter, who made the first settlement in Delaware County.

Electe and Nathan lived above Worthington where the Methodist Children's Home is now. They had eleven children. Electe and Nathan died 1867 and are buried in Worthington; Naomi married Timothy Case; Titus married Hannah Fisher; he died 1860, aged 63, and is buried beside his wife in Liberty churchyard. Hannah died 1895 when she was nearly 100. She was a great personality and an interesting character. They had three daughters and a son, Miles, two daughters, Elizabeth and Caroline who married two brothers, Augustus and George Elsbree, and have descendants living near Lewis Center now. Miles married Jane Bartholomew. Miles and Jane had ten children. Luella Case's mother was the second one. Miles lived until 1912. He and Jane are buried in Liberty churchyard.

Pension Application

The State of Ohio, Delaware County, Ohio

Be it remember that on the twenty first day of November in the year eighteen hundred & thirty two personally appeared in open court before the Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for the said county and said state now in session, George Case a resident of Liberty Township in the said county. . .

I George Case was born in the town of Simsbury, Connecticut March 4 th A. D.1759. At the age of seventeen years I enlisted [as] a soldier in June A. D. 1776 in the Connecticut State Troop, and went to New York and joined the army under command of General Washington, my officers were Major General Spensor, Brigadier General Wadsworth, my Colonels were Fisher Gay and Selah Hart, Major Edward Mott, my Captain Jonah Gillet, Lieut. David Phelps and Phineas Drake, Ensign Samuel Wing.

We staid in New York a short time and then our Regiment was ordered onto Long Island to join General Green, the British landed at Flat Bush, I was ordered under command of Colonel Jame Wyllis with eight hundred men to proceed thither, and I think tarried there two nights and then the British set out to surround us and we was obliged to retreat to the fort; no engagement took place, but scattering fires I saw but one man killed, the rest of the party all escaped safe to the fort, where we staid I think one night and the next night being very dark and foggy we left the Island for New York where we tarried a few days, two ships sailed up the sound to Turkle Bay, our Brigade was ordered into the intrenchment against shipping to prevent the British from Long Island. Parked in a cove out of sight then coming around the point under cove of the cannon from the ships and landed at Turkle Bay, we being ordered to retreat had a fifteen mile chase to Harlem Heights, there made a stand for a few days, we had a great many men taken, from thence we made our way over Kings Bridge to the White Plains, and made no stand except for a night or so, where we made a stand a few days moving from place to place, from thence we proceeded up the road encamping at several places until we came to North Church where we staid until the 25 th of December our time then being expired we were legally discharged.

George Case

In April 1777, I engaged as substitute for Reuben Case in the militia and went to the Pickskill for two months, and joined the army under General Mackcougle, my officers were Brigadier General Woolcutt, Colonel Seth Smith, the Major I have forgot, my Captain Zacheus Case, Lieut Rockwell, Ensign Charles Humphrey, Nothing remarkable happened this campaign but the British landing from Long Island Sound, went and burnt the stores at Danbury Connecticut and almost all the dwelling houses, the troops at Pickskill was sent for General Mackcougle, collected the troops as quick as possible and marched all night til ten of clock the next day hearing they had got on board we returned to camp and served our time out and then I was legally discharged after serving my time of two months.

In July 1778 or 1779 which I have forgot I was drafted for two months and went to Greenwich Connecticut a garrison by one Regiment, my Col.. Noadiak Hooker, Major _____ Hooker, my Captain Job Case, Lieut. Benjamin Feruham, Ensign Elisha Case, nothing but continual harassing this campaign, we served our time out and then was legally discharged, after serving two months.

Towards the close of the War in September what year I have forgot, my writings all being left in Connecticut, I was drafted for two months and went to New Haven to garrison, only by one Battalion, commanded by Amasa Mills Major, my Captain Elisha Case, Lieut, Lieut. Roger Case, Ensign Nathaniel Roberts, nothing extraordinary happened this campaign, we served our time out and then legally discharged after serving two months.

In A. D. 1805, I removed from the State of Connecticut with my family to the State of Ohio, Liberty Township, Delaware County where I now reside, If you please to send me a present direct to Delaware County, State of Ohio.

Signed, George Case

LIBERTY HISTORIC MARKER DEDICATED JUNE 12

By Carole Wilhelm

Richard Converse doesn't let the dust settle.

One year after the dedication of a historical marker in Orange Township, there will be a similar dedication in Liberty Township on June 12. The Ohio Historical Society marker will honor the Case family, The Union Land Co. and Olentangy River Road.

Converse is a man who delves into family history and one who wants to let citizens know the significance of the past in their community. You might be surprised to learn that he lives in Florida and has tackled the challenges of research and bureaucracy from afar. I know from experience that seeking approval for designation of an historical site or event is not easy. His ancestors would be pleased to see his accomplishments!

Last September, Converse visited the area and spent some time at the Powell Liberty Historical Society. He met Eleanor Hawk, a founding member of the society, and discovered they had an ancestor in common, Seth Case.

Judy Brozek, an area historian and writer, has shared her knowledge and research materials, and I have provided additional guidance during this project.

The earlier marker honored Anson Williams, Converse's great-great-great-grandfather and James Kilbourne, who surveyed the Columbus and Sandusky Turnpike, now U.S. Route 23.

The new marker will recognize some of his Case family ancestors who were among the 26 members of The Union Land Co., purchasing land in Liberty Township in 1806. They came from Simsbury, Conn., and paid James Kilbourne $2 per acre for lots totaling from 100 to 300 acres. Kilbourne formed the company to purchase United States Military Lands after the Revolutionary War. He paid $7,000 for the 4,000 acres in southeastern Liberty Township.

LIBERTY HISTORIC MANOR OPENS TED JUNE 12

By Carole Williams

One year after the dedication of a historic marker in Orange Terrace, there will be a similar dedication in Liberty Township on June 12. The Otto Hauser Society marker will honor the Chase family. The home is located at 1 Liberty River Road.

Constance is a man who delves into family history and now, who wants to help others know the importance of this past in their own family. He was inspired to begin work on this project after finding the gravestones of several early Chase family members in the cemetery behind the house. "I came from somewhere that existing documents for generations of my ancestors are at least a little sketchy. This ceremony will be planned to help documentation."

Last September, Constance visited the home and spoke with Linda Jones, Liberty Township historical society. He met Thomas Hazell, a Township member of the society, and discovered they had an interest in continuing both Chase

Doris Brown, an area historian and author, has started her knowledge and research that he and Thomas provided, and more questions during this project.

The society, owner Norma Anson Williams "Thomas's great-great-grandmother and Thomas Hazell who conveyed the Chase and Liberty Township, now U.S. Route 23.

The new marker will accompany the Chase family ancestors who were among the 25 founders of "the Union Land Co." Purchasing land in Liberty Township in 1806. They were the Company, Elcon, and Lucy Chase. Records [illegible] per acre for lots totaling from 100 to 200 acres. Additional [illegible] company to purchase [illegible] Chase [illegible] after the [illegible] the [illegible] Township

Converse discovered George's land was in what is now the northwest section of Highbanks Park, so it is fitting that the marker will be in the park, a place with many visitors. The ceremony on June 12 will be at 10 a.m. in the Big Meadow Picnic Area, and guests are welcome.

The marker also highlights Olentangy River Road in Liberty Township, a road with which locals have a love-hate relationship. Who can disagree with a resident who said she feels like she is "driving through an oil painting" when she cruises the scenic byway? Yet, traffic delays along the same route are a daily frustration for 21st century travelers.

Back in 1808, the year Delaware County was established, the county commissioners received a petition "for a County Road on the west side of Whetstone (note: the Olentangy River) beginning at the Indian boundary line thence to the Town of Delaware thence to the South line of the county as near the Whetstone River as the ground & angles of the River will admit of."

Converse has spent countless hours in his research, enjoying most every minute, I am sure. In a December e-mail, when he was giving me an update on his work and contacts, he wrote: "Do I sound excited? I love it when a plan starts to come together." He is a busy man in his retirement.

This historical society is the recipient of the material he has acquired and produced. We win in two ways: our genealogy files improve and our township now has an Ohio Historical Society marker.

Thanks, Dick.

Seth Case Revolutionary War Patriot and Liberty Township Pioneer to be Honored

By Richard Converse

Liberty Presbyterian Church located at 7080 Olentangy River Road in Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio near the intersection of Home Road and Olentangy River Road will be the site of a ceremony to honor Seth Case. He was a Delaware County Pioneer coming to Liberty Township in 1810. He was born September 29, 1749 in Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut. At the age of 27 he answered the call to arms. In 1776 and 1777, a Revolutionary War patriot, he was a private in Captain Benjamin Mill's Company in the Connecticut State Militia. On June 10, 1777 Seth Case was promoted to First Sergeant by his commanding officer Rodger Enos of the First Battalion raised for the defense of the State of Connecticut. The United States Congress approved Revolutionary War pensions in 1832 so Case never received a pension for his service seeing as he died in 1813.

The June 10, 1777 hand written promotion certificate that was received from the Simsbury Historical Library authorizing Seth Case's promotion follows:

> "Rodger Enos, Esq. Col of the First Battalion Raised for the Defense of the State of Connecticut on the seacoast and Frontiers And parts adjacent, To Seth Case . . . . .Greeting.
> By virtue of the Power and Authority to me given by the Governor and Company of the State of Connecticut I do by these presents Constitute and Appoint you the said Seth Case to be First Sergt in the First Company in said Regiment reposing special trust and confidence in your loyalty, courage and _____ ____ _____ ____ therefore carefully and dutifully to discharge the duty aforesaid commanding them to obey you as their Sergt and yourself to observe and obey such orders and directions as you shall from time to time receive from one or other of your superior officers according to Military Rules and Discipline of war. Pertinent to the trust reposed in you for which this shall be your sufficient warrant.
> Given under my hand and seal this 10 th day of June A. D. 1777.
> Roger Enos, Col"

In the book, the Record of Service of Connecticut Men in the War of the Revolution compiled by Authority of the Connecticut General Assembly under the direction of the Adjutants General published in 1889 states:

> "Seth Case served in the Bradley Battalion, Wadsworth's Brigade in 1776 under the command of Benjamin Mills of New Hartford."
> "Col. Bradley's Battalion ordered to be raised in May '76, for the general defense of the State, was assigned as one of seven battalions of Wadsworth's brigade. It was stationed during the greater part of the summer and early fall of '76 at Berger Heights and Paulus Hook (Jersey City). In October it moved up the river to the vicinity of Ft. Lee, then under Gen. Greene's command. In November most of the Regt was sent across to assist in defending Fort Washington which on the fall of the Fort, Nov. 16, was captured with the entire garrison. The prisoners included the 'Lieut Col., 4 Captains, 10 Lieutenants, 1 Sergt Major, 10 Sergts,'11 Corpls, 6 Drum and Fifes and 238 privates' . . ."

Also, in the book, Official Roster III Soldiers of the American Revolution Who lived in the State of Ohio, published in 1959 states:

"Case, Seth—Delaware Co B. 1756, Simsbury, Conn; d 1820 (sic) bur on farm on which he settled on West bank of Olentangy River, north of Powell Rd, Liberty Twp, Delaware Co, O. Served in Capt Mills' Company, Conn State Trps, 1776. Enl Sept 15, disc Sept 3 rd. Wife, Eunice Tuller in Simsbury, Conn. Had bro, Revolutionary Soldr, George Case. Calvin Barber

Hartford County SS
Simsbury this 25 th day of September 1810

Then personally appeared Capt. Seth Case signer of the forgoing power of attorney. I acknowledge the same to be his free act & deed before me

Calvin Barber, Justice of Peace

Note #1: Could this have been one of Seth Case's last acts in Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut before he traveled to Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio to settle there? Seth Case and his family appeared on the 1810 Census for Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut.

Note #2: Asa Hoskins and family also appeared on the 1810 Census just six name below the name of Seth Case. An Asa Hoskins was married to a sister of Seth Case, Abigail.They were married November 6, 1784. This Asa Hoskins is most likely the one that Seth Case appointed as having his Power of Attorney. He was a neighbor of Seth Case and probably a trusted brother in law.

Concerning Seth Case
Received from Simsbury Historical Society in 2004

Worthington November 24, 1810
Mr. B. Ely

Your committee had completed the business respecting the division of your lands previous to my reception of your last letter (Sept 24). They set off to Doct. Bostos lots 6 & 13. Also, 64 acres, 3 rods and 10 rods on the north part of lot 12. The requests contained in you letter have been duly attended to. I have not received Capt. Case's bill of charge against you but will forward it immediately after I receive it. Capt. Willcox has chosen this N. half of lot No. 2. Ira & Hira Willcox No. 7 and honest Isaac N. half of lot No.8

I write in haste and if I have omitted writing on any particular which you expected. Write to me and I will forward any information I posses or can acquire.

I am sir, very respectfully yours,
W. Robe

P.S. All [is] well in this quarter. People are migrating from every part of the middle and northern states into our country. Capt. Case, the Taylors, etc from Simsbury have all arrived. They say that they are well pleased with this country.

W. Robe

Note: The above note most likely confirms that Seth Case had arrived in Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio prior to November 24, 1810 from Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut.

Case family lore, as shared by Eleanor Hawk (Seth Case's great-great-great granddaughter), is that Seth Case walked from Simsbury to Liberty Township.

Seth Case's obituary reads as follows:

> Behold he sleeps in Death!
> His troubles all are o'er;
> And he resign'd his breath
> With hopes of Canaan's shore.
> DIED In Middlebury, on Friday last, Capt. Seth Case, aet, 63, of a fit of the apoplexy. His death was very sudden: his daughter, who was busy at work in the same room, where he had been sitting some time, apparently as well as usual; on a sudden discovered that something was the matter with him; she spoke to him but he was not able to answer her. She then called the family together, and by the time he was laid on a bed all signs of life had disappeared. His remains were deposited in the burying-ground at Middlebury with Masonic honors on Saturday.

The place of Seth Case's burial has been described thusly:

> In the Official Roster III Soldiers of the American Revolution who lived in the State of Ohio states: "[He was] buried on farm on which he settled on the west bank of the Olentangy River, north of Powell Rd in Liberty Township, Delaware County."
> The Fifty-Sixth Report of the National Daughters of the American Revolution states: "Seth Case buried on 1 st farm north of George Case farm, Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio."

In May 1957 George Case, a brother of Seth Case, was honored in a special ceremony when a white marble Revolutionary War grave marker was placed on his grave. He and his wife, Electa Moore, were buried in a family plot on George Case's farm. His farm was the first farm lot south of Powell Road and west of the Olentangy River. Today the marker still stands on what has been referred to as the Finstermaker farm located at an entrance to the farm near the top of the hill just east of Powell, Ohio.

George Case was a Private in the Connecticut Militia. He entered the militia in June 1776 at the age of 17 years old in the Connecticut State Troops. He applied for a pension in November 1833 at the age of 74 years old. His pension was $40.00 per year which he only received for a couple of years.

Richard Converse of Palm Harbor, Florida, family genealogist and historian, a great-great-great-great grandson of Seth Case, was successful in having an Ohio Historical Marker placed in Highbanks Metro Park located in Delaware County to honor the Case Family, The Union Land Company and to recognize the significance of the Olentangy River Road in the development of this section of Liberty Township. Descendents of Seth Case and friends of the family contributed the cost of that marker dedicated in June 2004.

On the 1809 Tax Duplicates for Delaware County, Ohio John Case paid $2.25 in taxes for Seth Case for 300 Acres located in Range 19, Township 3 and Section 4 (Delaware County, Liberty Township. Section 4 was the southeast quarter of Liberty Township where the Union Land Company members purchased land in 1806). It was not unusual for someone to act as an agent and pay the taxes for a relative or friend.

Captain Case, as he was affectionately known, was a member of the Union Land Company. This was a group of twenty six men formed in Simsbury, Connecticut who purchased 4,000 acres for $2.00 per acre in 1806 from James Kilbourne, a land speculator and the founder of Worthington, Ohio. The land was located in the Olentangy River Valley in the southeastern section of Liberty Township. Seth Case purchased 300 acres. His brother, George, purchased 150 acres. Other Case family members, Ambrose, Silas and Jonathan, Jr., were also members of the Union Land Company. Together the Cases purchased 950 acres.

Seth Case signed a Power of Attorney on September 25, 1810 in Simsbury, Connecticut. Seth granted to "Asa Hoskins of Simsbury to be my true & lawful attorney for me." Asa Hoskins is most likely the same man that was married to Seth Case's sister, Abigail Case. This appears to be one of Seth's last official acts in Simsbury. He wanted to assure that his legal affairs in Connecticut were handled properly and legally. Then on November 24, 1810 a letter written by W. Robe from Worthington to Mr. B. Ely stating in a P. S. that, "Captain Case, the Taylors, etc have all arrived."

The memorial marble grave marker for Seth Case has been approved by and will be furnished by the Department of Veteran Affairs. The grave marker will be placed in the Liberty Presbyterian Church Cemetery. A special ceremony is being planned to honor Case for his service to his country in the War of Independence.

The requested inscription on the white marble headstone is:

In Memory of
Seth Case
Sergeant
Connecticut State Troops
Revolutionary War
September 29, 1749
June 4, 1813

Seth Case died very suddenly on June 4, 1813 at the age of 63 of "a fit of apoplexy" (which caused a crippling stroke) in Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio. The obituary for Seth Case that was published in the Western Intelligencer on June 9, 1813 (the paper was established in Worthington, Ohio in 1811 by James Kilbourne the sole proprietor) states that he died and was buried in Middlebury (the original name for Powell, Ohio). He died on Friday and was buried on Saturday, June 5, 1813. The place where he was originally buried by his family was on a farm north of Powell Road that has been variously described but it is generally believed that where he was buried is now a subdivision. The exact location of his grave has been lost and nobody knows for sure where he was buried.

George Case

Brother of Seth Case

George Case born in 1759, died in 1834.

George Case served as a private in the Connecticut Militia. He entered the service in June 1776 at 17 years old.

He was a member of the Union Land Company. He purchased 150 acres in southeastern Liberty Township in 1806.

His white marble Revolutionary War headstone was dedicated in 1957. It is located on the first farm lot south of Powell Road (Route 750) and west of Olentangy River Road.

To see the grave go west on Powell Road to the driveway near the top of the hill, turn left into the driveway and it is located on the left as you enter private property known as the Fenstermaker Farm.

SETH CASE

He was born in Simsbury, CT in 1749. At the age of 27 he answered the call to arms as a private in the War of Independence in 1776. On June 10, 1777 he was promoted to First Sergeant by his commanding officer, Roger Enos, of the First Battalion raised for the defense of the State of Connecticut.

Captain Case, as he was affectionately known, was a member of the Union Land Company that purchased 4,000 acres in southeastern Liberty Township. He purchased 300 acres in 1806. He came to Ohio in 1810. An Ohio Historical Society marker was placed in Highbanks Metro Park in 2004 to honor The Case Family and the Union Land Company.

According to his obituary in the Western Intelligencer published in Worthington he died on June 4, 1813 suddenly of a fit of apoplexy (a stroke) at the age of 63.

One record states he was buried on the first farm north of the George Case farm. The George Case farm was the first farm lot south of Powell Road. Another source says he was buried on a farm that he settled on the west bank of the Olentangy River north of Powell Road. This farm is now the Retreat subdivision

History of Old Liberty Church

The church was organized in 1810. It is the oldest church in Liberty Township. For ten years services were held around in homes of the members during the winter and in the woods in the summer. The Old Liberty Church building was built in 1820 on land donated by John F. Cellar for $1.00.

In 1810 the original Elders were Thomas Cellar, Josiah McKinnie and Leonard Monroe. Cellar and McKinnie are buried here at Liberty Cemetery.

A cemetery was laid out adjacent to the church building. It is the oldest public burying grounds in the county. Liberty Cemetery is burial place for 69 veterans.

The tallest grave marker is for Seth W. Case. He was an Elder in the Church and served as Clerk of the Session for five years. Another interesting grouping of burials is of Albert Case and two of his wives, Mary and Sarah Williams Case who were sisters.

THE UNION LAND COMPANY AND THE CASE FAMILY

Congress established the United States Military District in 1796 by an act to provide bounty land for Revolutionary War officers and soldiers. District lands consisted of 2.6 million acres in twelve Ohio counties, including Delaware County. The Union Land Company, organized by James Kilbourne of Connecticut in 1806, was formed to purchase Military District land. Kilbourne purchased 4,000 acres in southeast Liberty Township, Delaware County for $7,000, and, in turn, sold the land to 26 Union Land Company members for $2.00 per acre. Five members were from the Case family, and they purchased 950 acres--Ambrose, George, Jonathan, Seth, and Silas. George and Seth were Revolutionary War veterans who did not claim their bounty lands. George purchased lot 11, a part of which is in northwest Highbanks Park today, and Seth purchased 300 acres north of this site. By 1849 the Case family owned over 1,000 acres.

THE OLENTANGY RIVER ROAD

Delaware County was organized in February 1808. Four months later county commissioners authorized an act to build a county road from Columbus to Delaware and ordered it to be on the west side of the Whetstone River (later renamed the Olentangy River) "as near the Whetstone River as the ground & angles of the river" would allow. Azariah Root surveyed this route in August. In 1824 James Kilbourne was authorized to survey a state road from Columbus to Sandusky. In Liberty Township this state road followed the route along the Whetstone River that was laid out in 1808. The road was not improved with gravel until 1882 when lot owners were assessed $17,000 to pay for the improvement. In 1998, a 10.5 mile stretch of Olentangy River valley, including Olentangy River Road or State Route 315, across the river from this site, was designated the Olentangy Heritage State Scenic Byway.

MARKER
THE UNION LAND COMPANY
AND THE CASE FAMILY
Congress established the United States Military District in 1796 by an act to provide bounty land for Revolutionary War officers and soldiers. District lands consisted of 2.6 million acres in twelve Ohio counties, including Delaware County. The Union Land Company, organized by James Kilbourne of Connecticut in 1806, was formed to purchase Military District land. Kilbourne purchased 4,000 acres in southeast Liberty Township, Delaware County for $7,000, and, in turn, sold the land to 26 Union Land Company members for $2.00 per acre. Five members were from the Case family, and they purchased 950 acres—Ambrose, George, Jonathan, Seth, and Silas. George and Seth were Revolutionary War veterans who did not claim their bounty lands. George purchased lot 11, a part of which is in northwest Highbanks Park today, and Seth purchased 300 acres north of this site. By 1849 the Case family owned over 1,000 acres.

Story about Gathering Horseradish

By Gerald Glenn At Dedication of Case Family Marker
June 12, 2004

"I am a son of Madeline Jones Glenn, who was a daughter of Letha Williams Jones, a daughter of Sarah Case Williams. I am a great, great, great, great grandson of Seth Case, a Revolutionary War veteran and one of the members of the Union Land Company. . ."

"I'm going to share a story my mother told of growing up near here on land that was a part of the Union Land Company holdings. She, her sister Elizabeth and brother Darrell were told to go dig some horseradish root, enough to fill a certain container and wash it off in the stream on the way back to the house. Darrell, the oldest, probably in charge, made a game of washing the horseradish. One would drop the pieces of root into the water and the other two would pick it out as it floated by downstream. The work became play and play became a concentrated effort to retrieve all the horseradish they had dug."

"This was an ordinary day in the lives of three children 80 or so years ago that became special in my mother's memory because of the joy shared with her siblings on a spring day perhaps like today."

"So when we leave today and go back to digging horseradish, remember there is more to what we do than we at first might think."

Gerald and Margo Bartlett Glenn

There is not a census record in Ohio or Connecticut for Seth Case in 1820 and beyond.

On the 1809 Tax Duplicates John Case paid $2.25 in taxes for Seth Case for 300 Acres located in Range 19, Township 3 and Section 4 (Delaware County, Liberty Township, Section 4 was the southeast quarter of Liberty Township where the Union Land Company members purchased land in 1806). It was not unusual for someone to act as an agent and pay the taxes for a relative or friend.

Eunice Tuller (F)

d. 1821
Pedigree

Eunice Tuller was the daughter of Joseph Tuller and Martha Bunce. Eunice Tuller married Seth Case, son of Capt. John Case and Sarah Barber. Eunice Tuller died in 1821 at Worthington, Franklin Co., OH.

son of John Case and Sarah Spencer. John Case married Mary Olcott, daughter of Thomas Olcott Jr. and Mary (?), on 12 September 1684 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.[6] John Case married Sarah Holcombe, daughter of Joshua Holcombe and Ruth Sherwood, in 1693. John Case died on 22 May 1733 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT, at age 70.[5]

John moved with his family to Simsbury when he was seven years old. With the exception of one year spent in Windsor during the King Philip War, John lived all his life in Simsbury and died there. He is buried in the Simsbury cemetery next to his mother. He lived and worked on his fahter's farm at Weatogue until he married at age 22. (Charles Case, p. 116)

John's wife Mary and their son John both died in 1685, presumably at childbirth.

For a numbr of years after the death of Mary and John, he remained single farming his property on Bissell Brook and living on his home lot nearby, acquiring additional lands.

Two years after his mother died, John married Sarah, and within a span of ten years, John and Sarah had six children.

1. I, John Case, Sen., of Simsbury, do make this my last will and testament: I give to my well-beloved wife Sarah 1-3 part of my now dwelling house and barn, with 1-3 part of my improveable land during her natural life, and also 1-3 part of my moveable estate forever. I give to my son John a certain piece of land lying on the east side of the river in Simsbury, being 12 acres that his barn now stands upon, sd. land lying westward of Buttolph's house, north of the highway, bounded northerly side on Josh. Holcomb's land. I give to my son Daniel the pasture lott that his house stands upon, with 4 rods south of his dwelling house and so running west 1 1-2 rods, south of the south corner of sd. Daniel's land, straight through the lott to the west end, and also the 2 1-2-acre lott that bounds south upon sd. pasture and north upon Samuel Adams's land. I give to my son Jonathan my homelott that I now dwell upon, with all the buildings thereon. The remaining part of all my lands I give unto my sons John, Daniel and Jonathan, to be equally divided between them, except that I give to my son John œ10 more than an equal part. I give to the heirs of my daughter Mary, 10 shillings to her son and 5 shillings to each of her daughters, besides what I have already given her in her lifetime. I give to my daughter Sarah so much in moveable estate as to make up œ60 as money with what I have already given her, with this promise, that my wife Sarah quits all her claim in the law that she has or may have unto lands that descended to her from her Father Holcomb equally to my sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan; but, if not, I give unto my sd. daughter 10 shillings. Also I give unto my daughter Hannah œ60 in moveable estate with what she has already received, in the whole œ60 as money. I appoint my three sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan, executors. Pedigree

John Case was born on 22 August 1694 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.[4,5,6] He was the son of John Case and Sarah Holcombe. John Case married Abigail Humphrey, daughter of Lt. Samuel Humphrey and Mary Mills, on 24 January 1716/17 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.[7] John Case died on 2 December 1752 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT, at age 58.

(Charles Case) "After his marriage, John, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather, engaged in farming his land throughout his life. Like them, he performed his civic duties, but he did not seek positions in public life, preferring to devote himself to his family and his farm."

John Case I [1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)

b. 1616, d. 21 February 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore, daughter of John Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

Behold he sleeps in Death!
His troubles all are o'er;
And he resign'd his breath
With hopes of Canaan's shore.

DIED In Middlebury, on Friday last, Capt. Seth Case, aet, 63, of a fit of the apoplexy. His death was very sudden: his daughter, who was busy at work in the same room, where he had been sitting some time, apparently as well as usual; on a sudden discovered that something was the matter with him; she spoke to him but he was not able to answer her. She then called the family together, and by the time he was laid on a bed all signs of life had disappeared. His remains were deposited in the burying-ground at Middlebury with Masonic honors on Saturday.

A specific day, May 30, was established in 1868 to honor our nation's Civil War dead.

It was called Decoration Day, and the remembrance included decorating graves with flowers. The idea was that of Gen. John Logan. Gen. James Garfield spoke at Arlington National Cemetery that year. There were more than 5,000 participants who decorated the graves of 20,000 soldiers.

Honoring veterans in our area and remembering all those who served our country has been a yearly event in Powell for many years. A quiet and moving service is held in the Powell Cemetery prior to the Memorial Day Parade.

John Pendleton, now deceased, was a leader in organizing the annual parade. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the Marine Corps.

Currently, the Powell Veterans Memorial Foundation is planning a memorial to honor all veterans. It will be in Village Green Park. Like Pendleton, the leader of this effort, Kathryn Gerke, is a patriotic resident, taking responsibility for something that will have meaning in the community.

Richard Converse is another person who is passionate about remembering the past and one particular veteran. He has submitted an application to the Department of Veterans Affairs to obtain a marble Revolutionary War grave marker for his ancestor, Seth Case. Case was born in 1749 in Connecticut, served in the Revolutionary War in 1776 and 1777, and came to Ohio in 1810, settling in Middlebury, once the name for Powell.

Local historian Judi Brozek sought approval from the Liberty Township trustees to have the marker placed in the Liberty Presbyterian Church Cemetery "to put the family back together." You see, the research Converse and Brozek have done indicates Seth was buried on the farm north of his brother George's farm. George Case, another Revolutionary War soldier, is buried atop the Powell Road hill.

When The Retreat was built in the mid-1970s, a tombstone for Seth's son, John, was found on that land. Because Eunice, Seth's wife, and his two sons all died of bilious fever within four days of each other in 1821, and because other remains were discovered, it is their judgment that Seth also was buried there. Larry Lape, project manager at that time, made certain everything unearthed was placed in a common grave in the Liberty Cemetery. It seems appropriate that Seth Case's marker should be placed there today.

There are two other Revolutionary War graves at Liberty: Isaac Hardin and John McKinney. According to Brozek's 1995 book, "The Pioneer Cemeteries of Liberty Township," there are 18 such cemeteries. She indicates the location of the graves and the wars of known veterans. Obdiah Knapp is the only known Revolutionary War soldier buried in The Powell Cemetery. Her book is very interesting.

There certainly isn't room for everyone who attends the Memorial Day Parade to attend the service in the Powell Cemetery, but there is room for those who wish to take time to reflect on what Memorial Day really means.

The brief program will begin at 8:30 a.m. on May 30 this year and will include a flag-folding ceremony by the Jr. ROTC. Attendees are encouraged to bring flowers for the graves and especially look for the markers identifying those who served our country. There are 52 veterans from various wars buried in the Powell Cemetery.

In 1971, Congress declared Memorial Day a national holiday to be celebrated the last Monday in May. Efforts have been undertaken to return the commemoration to May 30. In 2002, the Veterans of Foreign Wars said the meaning of the day had been undermined with the creation of a three-day weekend.

Worthington November 24, 1810
Mr. B. Ely

Your committee had completed the business respecting the division of your lands previous to my reception of your last letter (Sept 24). They set off to Doct. Bostos lots 6 & 13. Also, 64 acres, 3 rods and 10 rods on the north part of lot 12. The requests contained in you letter have been duly attended to. I have not received Capt. Case's bill of charge against you but will forward it immediately after I receive it. Capt. Willcox has chosen this N. half of lot No. 2. Ira & Hira Willcox No. 7 and honest Isaac N. half of lot No.8

I write in haste and if I have omitted writing on any particular which you expected. Write to me and I will forward any information I posses or can acquire.

I am sir, very respectfully yours,
W. Robe

P.S. All [is] well in this quarter. People are migrating from every part of the middle and northern states into our country. Capt. Case, the Taylors, etc from Simsbury have all arrived. They say that they are well pleased with this country.

W. Robe

Note: The above note most likely confirms that Seth Case had arrived in Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio prior to November 24, 1810 from Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut.

Note: The above note most likely contains text which was lost in transcription.

Note #1: Could this have been one of Seth Case's last acts in Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut before he traveled to Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio to settle there? Seth Case and his family appeared on the 1810 Census for Simsbury, Hartford County, Connecticut.

Note #2: Asa Hoskins and family also appeared on the 1810 Census just six name below the name of Seth Case. An Asa Hoskins was married to a sister of Seth Case, Abigail.They were married November 6, 1784. This Asa Hoskins is most likely the one that Seth Case appointed as having his Power of Attorney. He was a neighbor of Seth Case and probably a trusted brother in law.

Why do I believe Seth Case came to Ohio in 1810?

The 1810 Census:

Seth Case was counted in the Federal Census in 1790, 1800 and 1810 in Hartford County, Simsbury, Connecticut.

According to: The Source, A Guidebook of American Genealogy, Published by Ancestry, Salt Lake City, Utah in 1997. "The 1810 census was begun 6 August 1810. The count was due within nine months, but the due date was extended by law to ten months."

The Hartford County, Connecticut Census (which includes Simsbury) was completed and signed by Noah Phelps, Jr. on December 20, 1810. His enumeration of all the counts would have taken added time beyond the actual survey time at each residence. It is possible Seth Case was enumerated before he left Simsbury.

Property Taxes

On the 1809 Tax Duplicates for Delaware County, Ohio John Case paid $2.25 in taxes for Seth Case for 300 acres located in Range 19, Township 3 and Section 4 (Section 4 is the southeast quarter of Liberty Township where the Union Land Company members purchased land in 1806). Seth Case was a member of the Union Land Company and had purchased 300 acres from James Kilbourne.

It was not unusual for someone to act as an agent and pay the taxes for a relative or a friend. If Seth Case had been in Ohio he most likely would have paid his own taxes.

Power of Attorney

According to: The web site www.holcombgenealogy.com an Asa Hoskins was married to Seth Case's sister, Abigail Case. This is probably the same man Seth Case gave power of attorney to on September 25, 1810 in Simsbury. Seth granted to "Asa Hoskins of Simsbury to be my true & lawful attorney for me." This appears to be one of Seth Case's last official acts in Simsbury.

On the 1810 Federal Census Asa Hoskins was counted six rows below Seth Case. They most likely were neighbors.

Seth Case's arrival in Ohio

In a letter written from Worthington, Ohio by W. [William] Robe on November 24, 1810 to Mr. B. Ely in Simsbury, Connecticut he states in a P. S. in the letter that, "Captain Case, the Taylors, etc have arrived".

Five Generations

John Case I [1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)

b. 1616, d. 21 February 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore, daughter of John Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

Case Family

THE UNION LAND COMPANY
AND THE CASE FAMILY

The Union Land Company was a land company organized by James Kilbourne, the founder of Worthington, Ohio, in Connecticut January 6, 1806. The Company was formed to purchase land in the United States Military Lands in the State of Ohio. The land was located in Liberty Township, Delaware County. The section they purchased was in Range 19, Township 3, and Section 4 of the United States Military Lands. This Section 4 was the southeast section of Liberty Township. This section consisted of four thousand acres.

This four thousand acre section was sold to James Kilbourne for $7,000 by James Parker of Perth Amboy, New Jersey. Kilbourne in turn sold the land to the twenty six Union Land Company members for $2.00 per acre.

The deed was executed January 7, 1806. Mortgage Deeds were signed in Connecticut before various Justices of the Peace in Hartford County. Twenty three of the twenty six members received mortgages from James Parker. The interest rate was six per cent on the mortgages.

Deeds were duly executed from James Kilbourne to the twenty six men who agreed to partition this tract of land to each one their due proportion. The land was divided by running a line due north and south through the center of the said land, and said line is to continue as the line division between the two tiers of lots-one called east and one called west. This section four was originally divided into forty lots. However, later it was discovered that there was an error in the survey and two additional lots were laid out at the top or the north of said section. One lot was added to each tier prior to 1810 to compensate for the error. In 1810 Elam Tuller owned Lot 41 and Aaron Strong owned Lot 42.

The lots were numbered starting at the top (north) of the easterly section numbering one to twenty from north to south. Then the westerly section was numbered from south to north from twenty one to forty. Later lot number forty one was added to the westerly tier and lot forty two was added to the easterly tier.

There were five members of the Case family who were partners in the Union Land Company. They were Ambrose, George, Jonathan, Jr., Seth and Silas. It is believed that Jonathan passed away before coming to Ohio because the land was deeded to his heirs. Together the Case family purchased 950 acres of the 4,000 acres in the southeast section (section four) of Liberty Township.

The acreage and farm lot numbers originally purchased by each Case family member were:

- Ambrose Lot 24-100 acres,
- George Lot 11-100 acres and ½ Lot 35-50 acres,
- Jonathan Lot 3-100 acres and Lot 19-100 acres,
- Seth Lot 4-100 acres, Lot 37-100 acres, ½ Lot 16-50 acres and ½ Lot 29-50 acres,
- Silas Lot 33-100 acres and Lot 40-100 acres

The other members of the Union Land Company and the farm Lots they purchased were:

- David Thomas, Jr. Lot 1-100 acres,

- William Robe Lot 2 -100 acres,
- Samuel Scott Lots 5 and 31-200 acres,
- Walter Robe Lot 6 and ½ Lot 35-150 acres,
- David Buell Lot 7-100 acres,
- Bela M. Tuller Lot 8-100 acres,
- Joseph Sage Lots 9 and 32-200 acres,
- Amos Tuller Lot 10-100 acres,
- Noah A. Phelps Lots 12 and 14-200 acres,
- Jesse Andrews Lot 13-100 acres,
- Timothy Goodrich Lot 15-100 acres,
- Bella M. Tuller ½ Lot 16, ½ Lot 29 and Lot 36-200 acres,
- E. Goodrich ½ Lot 17 and ½ Lot 34-100 acres,
- E. Baker ½ Lot 17 and ½ Lot 34-100 acres,
- Roger Grizwold Lot 18-100 acres,
- Phillip Sage Lot 20-100 acres,
- John Kingsbury Lot 21-100 acres,
- Elias Vining, Jr. Lot 22-100 acres,
- Lemuel G. Humphrey Lot 23-100 acres,
- Alpheus Chapin Lots 25 and 27-100 acres,
- Jonathan Noble Lot 26-100 acres,
- David Thomas, Jr. Lot 28-100 acres,
- Timothy Goodrich Lot 30-100 acres,
- Peter F. Buell Lots 38 and 39-200 acres

Union Company Lands
Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio
Range 19, Township 3, Section 4
United States Military Lands

Deeds were duly executed from James Kilbourne to 26 men who agreed to partition this tract of land in Liberty Township to each one their due proportion. The land was divided by running a line due North and South through the center of the said land, and this said line is to continue as the line of division between the two tiers of lots--one called East and one called West. This Section Four was originally divided into Forty (40) lots. However, later it was discovered that there was an error in the survey and two additional lots were laid out at the top (north) of said section.

The lots were numbered starting at the top (north) of the easterly section numbering one (1) to twenty (20) from North to South. Then numbering the westerly section from South to North from twenty one (21) to forty (40).

When the two additional lots were discovered they were numbered forty one (41) and forty two (42) on the top tier of the lots in Range 19, Township 3, Section 4. Each lot in the section was nearly one hundred (100) acres each.

The deed of partition stipulated three roads were to be laid out on this tract of land:

~ One road across the west tier from North to South called the County Road.

~ Another road beginning at the sugar tree then North across the section to the North.

~ The third road from the North to the Southerly boundry of the section line. This highway to remain a public highway to extend two rods easterly and westerly.

The original forty (40) lots were laid out with the Case family having the following lots:

Lot	Proprietor
3	Heirs of Jonathan Case, Jr.
4	Seth Case
11	George Case
16	Seth Case 1/2 Lot
19	Heirs of Jonathan Case, Jr.
24	Ambrose Case
29	Seth Case 1/2 Lot
33	Silas Case
35	George Case ½ Lot
37	Seth Case
40	Silas Case

The Case family controlled approximately 950 acres.

DEED OF PARTITION
UNION COMPANY'S LANDS
19-3-4

Deed Book A, Page 274
Executed: 1/7/1806
Filed: 1/9/1806

We whose names are hereinafter written are by deeds bearing date to us duly executed from James Kilbourne...owners and proprietors as tenants in common of Section No. 4, Township No. 3, in the Nineteenth Range of the Congress Military District in the State of Ohio and now in full, just and allowed possession of said premises have for our mutual benefit agreed to make and by these presents do make and duly execute a just and legal division and partition of said tract of land to each and every proprietor his due proportion according to his right taking into view every circumstance relating thereto, and to accomplish which we have surveyed said tract by a line running due North and South through the center of said tract, which center line this said section is hereby established and forever to continue as the line of division between the two tiers of lots, one called the East, the other the West, and we have erected posts upon said line and witnessed them by bearing trees and bounds so marked we do hereby establish to remain forever as the corners of the numbered lots in said section. And the line are to run due East and West from said post to other posts sets on the East and West line of said section marked and witnessed by bearing trees according to the magnetical meridian calculating from the present time with variations as may be necessary to get a direct line from corner to corner of the several lots in said East and West tiers.

There is also three roads laid out on said tract one across the second or West tier from N. to S called the County Road and for the butments and boundaries thereof reference is to be had to the records thereof, one beginning a little Southwest of the Southeast corner of the Eighteenth Lot and then runs N. 26 degrees W. about 120 rods to the line between Lots No. 15 and 16, thence N. 13 degrees W. 40 rods to the great run near the narrows, then the same course 8 rods to a post, then N. 45 degrees W. 40 rods to a post. Thence N. 34 degrees W. 34 rods to a post, thence N. 50 degrees W 164 rods to a sugar tree 14" in diameter, thence the same course 550 rods to where it unites with the before described road 12 rods and 22 links S. of the N. line of the 39th Lot.

Also another road beginning at the sugar tree mentioned as above, then North across the said section to the North line thereof.

Also one other road in the first tier beginning at the top of the hill by the narrows at a post in the road heretofore described in a course run N. 15 degrees W. 40 rods to a post from said post run Southerly in said road 6 rods and departed from said road and run S. to the S. line of said section and the before described highway are to be and remain a public highway of 4 rods in width, and the lines run and described as aforesaid is the center of said highway to extend 2 rods Easterly and Westerly from said line for the Eastern and Western boundaries of the same.

And we have set out to the following persons the Nos. of Lots annexed to their names respectively as marked and numbered on the East and West line as aforesaid and as noted on the plat of said section and the posts set on the center line as aforesaid is to be the corner and ranging post of the lots lying East and West therefrom with straight line run from the several corners of said lots thereto be the width or quantity more or less—viz:

The deed of partition stipulated three roads were to be laid out on this tract of land.

- One road across the West tier from North to South called the County road. (Note: See deed for detailed description).

- Another road beginning at a sugar tree (described in detailed description above) then North across the section to the North line.

- One other road in the first tier beginning at the top of the hill by the narrows at a post in the road to run to the Southerly boundary of the section line. This highway to remain a public highway.
